Double Patenting

1. A rejection based on double patenting of the "same invention" type finds its support in the language of 35 U.S.C. 101 which states that "whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process ... may obtain a patent therefor ..." (Emphasis added). Thus, the term "same invention," in this context, means an invention drawn to identical subject matter. See Miller v. Eagle Mfg. Co., 151 U.S. 186 (1894); In re Ockert, 245 F.2d 467, 114 USPQ 330 (CCPA 1957); and In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970).

A statutory type (35 U.S.C. 101) double patenting rejection can be overcome by canceling or amending the conflicting claims so they are no longer coextensive in scope. The filing of a terminal disclaimer cannot overcome a double patenting rejection based upon 35 U.S.C. 101.

2. Claims 1-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 as claiming the same invention as that of claim 9 of prior U.S. Patent No. 6,777,174. This is a double patenting rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 1-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Sasaki et al. (U.S. Patent No. 6,780,579).

Claims 8-12 of Sasaki et al. disclose a silver halide color photographic light-sensitive material comprising a support having provided thereon photograph-constituting layers containing at least one yellow image-forming silver halide emulsion layer, at least one magenta image-forming silver halide emulsion layer, at least one cyan image-forming silver halide emulsion layer and at least one light-insensitive hydrophilic colloid layer, wherein the silver halide emulsion in at least one of the silver halide emulsion layers contains a grain of the silver halide having a silver chloride content of 90 mol % or more, the grains of the silver halide in the yellow image-forming silver halide emulsion layer have an average equivalent-sphere diameter of 0.70 μ m to 0.20 μ m, and further wherein the total amount of coated silver of the silver halide color photographic light-sensitive material is 0.50 to 0.20 g/m².
